

Sikhs in Law Launches Successful School Outreach Programme

Sikhs in Law recently concluded a successful school outreach initiative aimed at engaging and inspiring the next generation of Sikh students. This programme brought together legal professionals from our community, who visited several schools to share their experiences and encourage students to pursue careers in law and related fields. The outreach programme was a great success, thanks to the dedication of volunteers like Aruna Verma, Sanjay Toora, Sukhi Gill, Kiran Najran, Harjap Bhangal, Thomev Singh Khalsa, Gurbani Kaur, Kirandeep Kaur Viridi, and Jeevan Kaur Khalsa.

The schools visited as part of this initiative included Akaal Primary in Derby, Khalsa Primary in Slough, Guru Nanak Sikh Academy in Hayes, Atam Academy in Romford, Falcons Primary in Leicester, The Khalsa Academy in Wolverhampton, and Khalsa Club Coventry, which operates at Singh Sabha Gurdwara in Coventry. We also had the privilege of connecting with students at Pioneer Secondary Academy.

The programme not only highlighted the importance of diversity within the legal profession but also provided students with the opportunity to engage directly with Sikh legal professionals, hear about their career journeys, and receive advice on achieving their goals. Our volunteers shared valuable insights.
